This 24-hour workshop is for both sworn and civilian law enforcement supervisors and managers, including Probation and Corrections.

This is also an excellent course for aspiring supervisors

Let MCA help you develop the knowledge and skills necessary to create a work environment where employees will thrive and how to effectively deal with those employees who are unable or unwilling to perform. Our practical, common sense techniques, gets results without the abuse of power or employee rights. You can hold employees accountable for their job performance and behaviors at work and gain their respect at the same time. You will walk away from this workshop with tools you can use on your very first day back at work.

In this workshop you will learn how to:

- Avoid the seven mistakes that demotivate subordinates
- Develop performance standards that make your expectations clear
- Give effective feedback and write meaningful evaluations
- Assert your authority while respecting employee's rights
- Understand and apply disciplinary due process
- Confront difficult and resistant employees without losing
